Dear ${FNAME|Customer|Guest}$ ${LNAME|Customer|Guest}$,

In the ongoing battle to beat the Covid-19 virus, we've also had to deal with unprecedented levels of uncertainty.

During this period, the team at sendQuick is committed to ensuring we can give you a peace of mind by securing and strengthening your IT systems and applications. Our IT alert system notifies you whenever downtime or failure is detected in your systems.

By taking away the stress of constantly monitoring your IT systems, sendQuick's solutions gives you more certainty and resources to work on other business critical matters.

Be alerted anytime and anywhere with sendQuick. Watch this video to learn what sendQuick can do for you. Or email us at marketing@talariix.com for more information.

Stay strong and safe, we will get through this together.
